

NATIONAL SORROW OF ALL AMERICA.

The sympathy of the entire nation is now centered on the Scott residence at San Francisco. There the wife of President McKinley is at death's door. Her physicians have no hope; her friends have no hope: She is waiting for the inevitable summons from above. Probably before Kings; to accupy a sphere greater than even "the first woman in the land," to reside in a house not made with hands.

In his grief the president will have the sympathy of every heart. There will be no north, no south, no east, no west; no Democrats, no Populists, no Republicans.

Everybody will be an American in the genuineness of allocations. It has been known since the time of Galvani that an electrical current, which in turn is with a stags accent. "Ou compet me to the end of the wire.

It has been known since the time of Galvani that an electrical current, which in turn is reconverted into nerve force, at the ask as a contraction. The fact is, I have been pension. No! Not 'chop-show' nor a west side melodrama. Mine is not the end of the wire.

It has been known since the time of Galvani that an electrical current, which in turn is with a stags accent. "Ou compet me to the end of the wire.

It has been known since the time of Galvani that an electrical current, which in turn is with a stags accent. "Ou compet me to the end of the wire.

It has been known since the time of Galvani that an electrical current, which in turn is with a stags accent. "Ou compet me to the end of the wire.

It has been known since the time of Galvani that an electrical current, which in turn is with a stags accent. "Ou compet me to the end of the wire.

It has been known since the time of Galvani that an electrical current, which in turn is with a stags accent. "Ou compet me to the end of the wire.

It has been known since the time of Galvani that an electrical current, which in turn is with a stags accent. "Ou compet me to the end of the wire.

It has been known since the time of Galvani that an electrical current. With a stags accent. "Ou compet me to the end of the wire.

It has been known since the time of Galvani that an electrical current. The end of the wire.

It has been known since the time of Galvani that an electrical current. The end of the wire.

It has been known since the time of Galvani that an electrical current. The end of the wire.

It has been known since the time of Everybody will be an American in the genuineness of electrical excitation. their sorrow for the man whose best friend, the inspirer It will indeed be a triumph of science if we shall find of his ambitions, the companion of his years, is about to a way to patch up broken nerves with delicate wires. leave him-to leave him when the cup of his fortunes is overflowing, when he is in the full flush of the greatest the love of all the people is being showered upon him.

should collapse.

worse than tearing out his heart.

napplest land under the sun.

WHY DO YOU SEEK WEALTH?

that caused one real estate man in Oklahoma City to state and Great Britain is therefore averted. shoot down another. It was the mania for the dollar that actuated Fat Crowe to Eldnap Eddie Cudahy and that pines to sacrifice the name and fame of heroes when they erty in South Africa. It was the insatiate love of unnecessary wealth that led that old farmer of Reno county into the trap of a bunco man a few days ago. Wealth

Happy is he who delights in poverty. Joyful is the life is awful this crare of wealth.

wants and make enough to supply them. Education is himself. free to your children and human accomplishments were never so cheap or so easily acquired. Study the condi-tion of the contented and you will crave it. Assay the juy of the man who owns his own warm cottage, by his fire in the winter time, under his mulberry in the summer heart troubles, shattered nerves, gout and dyspepsia, are shop man. mere baubles. His pipe gives him more pleasure than your perfumed eight gives to you. No fantastic figures perch needs no tonics as yours does. When he laughs you can non and they were perfectly acceptable and satisfactory only smile. You may be able to go to the thenire, but he sees more fun on the bill boards. You may have the means to seek pleasure, but you have lost the capacity to enjoy it; he has the natural capacity not only to create

Mr. Bryan seems to have absorbed the spirit of the times. At Kansas City yesterday he indicated that he would talk business, but not politics. Mr. Bryan knows when a subject is closed. but to enjoy pleasure. Wealth is a will o' the wisp. It allines. He the siren. Fix a reasonable limit to rour an annayed grave the French government has ordered necessities, make enough to supply them—and stop. Seek life "Highle of Man" to be pested on every public place tout wenter that needs not be stored in bank vanits—the wealth of the mind-that which you can divide with your into the inviting mines of poetry and literature. In the buy it. mad rush of a busy day in Wichita the man who slowly plods and nods life way to the city library is infinitely more happy than he who rushes, heedless of the presence read of Tom mean's good fortune in Wall street. of friends, to the banks. It is a pity-absolutely a source of saliness—to watch the fierce and desperate struggle of a monument to its native son—sirgit. Need to become rich—rather, wealthy. It is a pathetic trugedy, one that will play in the pulpit in the universities in society, in the lodge room and even in the hower but he has a powerful lit more experience

Carnegie's resolve to die poor had its source in a civine inspiration. No man who aved in greed for thirty says that their whistles must stop years could, of himself, have come to the cancinsion that sistent with complete buppiness. Nature save but to any attention in Kansas pet.

few men the capacity to enjoy poverty, the mental endow ment to be fascinated by the nearness of bankruptcy, the itsposition to find supreme pleasure in finding the invisile line between a sufficiency and a deficiency.

NERVES OF WIRE.

Up to this time tae phrase "a wiry man" has been nerely figurative. But the possibility of replacing lost or merely figurative. But the possibility of replacing lost or broken nerves with wires seems to be in sight, and the wiry man may become one of the wonders of this century.

"I am sure you have been doing some-thing dreadful," said the sailest gift, and swerrely as she could, considering the marshmallows between her teeth. Tour A French scientist, M. August Charpentier, has shown another issue of the Eagle appears her pure spirit will that nerve force can be transmitted along a wire and have winged its flight to shide forever with the King of cause nevrous excitation in another nerve, either of the same animal or one near by. The nerve force is in some

KANSAS AND EDWARD VII.

When Kansas is the subject the writers of the Chicago tath. honor that a human being can aspire to upon earth, when Tribune are in their happiest vein. Discussing the note of King Edward to Governor Stanley, it says: "The com-For years Mrs. McKinley has been in ill-bealth. Re. monwealth of Kansas, home of Mrs. Nation, and mother of cently she showed sufficient signs of improvement to by receiving and placing on file a formal apology from a swing state of the best of control and placing on file a formal apology from a swing state of the best of control and state of the same warrant the belief that an outing would still farther bene- real and reigning king. Not even the untiring energy and fit her. It was resolved that she should accompany her the splendid ingenuity of the men who have started out husband in what was assured to be a delightful trip to to make Kansas the best advertised of states can be exthe coast. Until a day of two ago she enjoyed the trip pected to do more. When the death of Queen Victoria immensely, and it is strange that as she entered the land chance to put itself on record, adopted resolutions of conof flowers and sunshine and genial climate her health dolence, a copy of which was sent to King Edward. Just at that time the king was a busy man. Resolutions and The president's well earned vacation is ended. His other expressions of condolence and sympathy were comenjoyable and triumphal trip has terminated. Festivities ing in from all the multitudinous crown colonies of the in his honor in more than a dozen states must be aban-tions besides. In the pressure of business the Kansas doned, and notwithstanding the prayers of the nation it resolution fell into the hands of a clerk or secretary who seems to be a certainty that he will return in mourning was a little weak on geography. He perhaps confused and sorrow. His loss will be great in the death of his Kansas with humansi. At any rate he picked up a blank wife. The love he plighted to her at the altar was always from the wrong pile and filled out in formal style King deserved and it never flickered. They were excessively pressing at the same time the royal appreciation of such Edward's acknowledgment of the Kansas condolences, exfond of ach other and taking her away from his side will be "sympathy and loyalty." This filled-ir. blank was forwarded in due time to the capital of Kansas, where it created There is gloom an over what was two days ago the a sensation. The assumption that the compatriots of "Sockless" Simpson and Mary Ellen Lease were loyal subjects of King Edward gave several sunflower statesmen an opportunity to let the eagle sour. After a tremendous display of patriotic oratory some more resolutions were The world is growing money-mad. The insanity of adopted in which it was set out that the legislature of greed for wealth is pervading every class of society. It is Kansas had never expressed any loyalty to King Edward gradually eating away the bonds of human fraternity and and that he was therefore out of order and unparliamentary in acknowledging it. These resolutions followed the first across the water to London. As a result King Edward was obliged to instruct the Grand Keeper of the Royal on Wall street the other day; it is money madness-greed | Pountain Pen to write a letter of apology to the outraged for dividends—that caused the conflict beaween soldiers and insulted legislature of Kansas. This apology has and cirizens at Albany day before yesterday. It was gain been received and immediate danger of war between that

LETTING THE OTHER FELLOWS WORRY.

The Sultan's reply to the protests of the ambassadors made somebody else to drown Willie McCormick. It was relative to his interference with their mail bags is rethe love of lucre that caused the soldiers in the Philip- garded as an insult. But the Sultan is not worrying over the matter in the least. He has insulted the European nabartered favors for paltry sums; that made Neeley sell is not prepared to believe that any serious consequences tions so often, both individually and collectively, that he the confidence of his country in Cubs; that made Oberlin will follow this time. The Sultan knows very well that Carter tarnish the name of an American soldier. It is the jealousies of the Christian powers are too acute to greed for pounds, shillings and pence that is crushing lib- permit them to come to any agreement relative to their dealings with him. This being the case, he will open the letters of their ambassadors whenever he sees fit.

MUTTERINGS OF A EUROPEAN COMBINATION.

More peevish mutterings are heard of a European coma friend to a matron who has daughters and before she bination to resist American competition, but the troublesome details of such an anti-American league have not will give him a pleasant look she will drag you into a corner and ask you rich he is. Sit in a railway car with your be. Is a tariff war on our products intended? Then this book, and you can't enjoy it because everybody is chatter must be carried on under general laws. Germany or ing about money. A friend calls your attention to some. Austria cannot have two tariff faces, like Browning's body, not to inform you of some special endowment of grounds or virtue possessed by him, but to tell you how the she is not loved. Treaty obligations stand in the typewriter I nine next room," he answergenius or virtue possessed by him, but to tell you how way of any such scheme. And what shall it profit one much money he made in a recent transaction. If you seek European power to sirike at American exporters, if, with the co-operation of some friend of yours to condemn a the same club, it must belabor the heads of its neighbors, boodler it is nine chances out of ten that he will say: and be by them whacked in turn? There is, to be sure, Well, you or I would have done the same thing if we the old alternative of a general European Zollverein, within which reciprocity and low tariffs are to prevail, were in his position." Girls are pointed out in the street while outside maximum rates are to keep off the rude and ball rooms, and even at churches, and when your in- American. But the fiscal difficulties in one way of such terest is keen to ascertain her special talents, graces or a plan are, in each country, so insurmountable that it has virtues you only find what her papa's bank account is. He the smallest chance of being adopted this side of the miltennium.

Charles A. Towne has made a convenient discovery in of a man who has no interest in wealth. Pleasant will be the days of him who seeks a poor man's faneral.

Money is nothing but a necessity. Cultivate simple went wild with enthusiasm over Mr. McKinley's arrival there has no not with explanations, can be tell why all Texas went wild with enthusiasm over Mr. McKinley's arrival there has no not with continuous to the continuous arrival there has no not will with enthusiasm over Mr. Towns to very much of a gusher time, and the palaces and liveried servants you have not cared with your gray hairs, indigestion, Bright's disease, man won $9,000 in Northern Pacific speculation and ended

Civil Engineer George Heckel of Beston is evidently a man who knows his business. He submitted plans for an introduce my appearant to the daughter of ex-Atterney General Har.

Some entered.

Why, Mary, how you startled me," he said. "I didn't expect to see you here. What a pleasant surprise. Allow me to introduce my appearant to you. Mr. Hannan, this is Mrs. Tapes. You see my upon his bedpost to disturb his sleep. His breakfast table elepement to the daughter of ex-Attorney General Har-

One hundred years after the burial of Thomas Paine in wealth of the mind—that which you can divide with your A. Chicago congregation has offered a good-looking friends every day without losing. Direct your lust for main congregation doesn't want to get feligion—it wants to

-

How rain it is for Mantua to be spending its money for That ranked farmer at Winstead who tied bis team to a freight car hasn't any more borses than a rabbit now, The curio of Chicago have steam signals which their sweethers; understand, and the humane society unnatural, immense and unreasonable wealth was incon-the Democracy of Ohio, but it isn't big enough to attract

THE GIRL PHILOSOPHER.

with a satisfied air of worldly wisdom; a provoking shadow of mystery lurked in her eyes. She retused to hear the question of the fuffy-haired girl, and looked blandiy over the head of the sallow young women in the purple shirt water. Even marshmallows failed to awaken her the his an expression of guilt.

The giff philosopher looked defiant and indered why it is that sallow young men and girls who squint always come.

she finally acknowledged.

With this announcement sen waited across the room and struck a mannish at-titude before the mirror. Unhappily the expected sensation was not produced. The sailow girl only looked bored and re-marked that she failed to see anything the announcement of the second of t canny or startling about a Turkish

Have you ever taken one?" inquired the girl philosopher.
"My habits are such that I have never "My habits are such that I have never "replied the salfelt the necessity of one," replied the sal-

"I thought only very plump women or awfully scrawny ones took them, you anow," youchsafed the fluffy-haired girl. Then she observed the one dimension of their informant and blushed.

Then she observed the one dimension of their informant and blushed.

"There's where you are wrong," said the girl philosophed, calmly. "The fact is that only agai statues in Greek draperies take Turkish baths. If you're not a regal statue do not attempt it. In the irst place, you must sail into the place in your very best street gown, There will be ligures in white on the left and the left your very best street gown, There will figures in white on the left and on the cott of you, and they know whether you we on a tailor-made or a rendy made of they will mention the fact before old one go out." on a tallor-made or a ready made they will mention the fact before St. Peter at the deck and if it is a eady made you'll be left to stay in the of room until you are fricasseed, coun-st Peter will give you your key and ske your name. If your name happens to be Jones' or "Fisherty make up with rom' to it, or with a hyphen somewhere."

Bath? Mrs. St. Peter will inquire.

"Bath? Mrs. St. Peter will inquire.

You put down a dollar in haughty si-

"Certainly," you will say, mentally noting the 50 cents extra.

"Hair dress?"
"Yes madam." The other 50 cents omes now, but you must not wince.
"Alcohel rub?"

"Alcohol rub."
"Always an alcohol rub. This means a cents and a tip to the attendant. Mrs. St. Peter doesn't inquire about the tip, but you know she is including it, and ahe knows you know it.

"But the unraveled mysteries are yet to come. Not until you have proved by ex-pert swimmling in the plungs that you go to the senshore every nummer and than have been tucked away on your cot, over have been tunked away on your cot, over which your feet project into space, do you receive unsought confidences from all points of Chicago. Now, if a man has a secret to confide he will telephone his lawyer, lock the two of them in his private office and whisper it over his official papers. But a woman must needs choose a Turkish bath, with eggabell partitions only half-way to the celling. She tions only half-way to the celling. akes her dearest friend, who occurres the oot opposite, and they proceed to tell all they know. What I have tearned today girls, would start a society weekly. There was a compariment on each side of me and two women in each compariment. I heard things, which—well, they shall lose nothing in the telling. It's my turn Emporia Menday.

Hubby's Typewriter.

Arthur Tapes was showing Miss.

Arthur Tapes the wonders of mamman's coolegy in Wall street at the close of husbess on the day following the end of their wedding tour.

"Who are all these young ladies I see on the stret?" asked Mrs. Tapes.

"They are typewriters from the hundreds of offices around here," answered the husband.

Hereafter Mrs. Nation will demand we have the husband.

"Have you a typewriter?" she asked. he answered, and again the subclock Mrs. Arthur Tapes entered the

i. as he pointed with his left elbow to a commander uriollay open door. "Shall I call him?" the state. "No! I will wait," replied Mrs. Tapes. In Kansas. she took a seat that gave the best possance another will be took a seat that gave the best possance another will be took a seat that gave the best possance another will be took a seat that gave the best possance another will be took a seat that gave the best possance and the seat that gave the best possance are the seat that gave the best possance and the seat that gave the best possance are the seat that gave the best possance are that gave the best possance are the seat that gave the seat the seat the seat that gave the seat the seat that gave the seat the seat that gave the seat the

it was a most provoking view, for it are Mrs. Tapes only a glimper of Mr. ape's side elevation as he straightened is his chair from a frequent leaning pottion, apparently toward the typewriter. Is a few minutes sha moved her chair learer, which did not help her view, but adde the velce more distinct. Mr. Tapes could so far furward that he was enrely out of eight, and Mrs. Tapes show-l actuation by rapidly tapping the floor. Ith her right foot. Then she arose and oproached the husy mooth pated clerk. "What is the name of Mr. Tapes' type-riter?" she asked.

She returned to chr chair and drew it little nearer the door as she sat down, he saw her husband standing, and then the saw her husband standing, and then lisspear as he stepped behind the type-vriter, She heard him laugh, a low laugh hat she had delighted in Then she heard dim speak, with some emphasis.

"I have had my vacation," he said, and now you must have yours. I hope ou will have as fine a time as we had then we took our vacation together last linears.

Mrn. Tapes sprang from her seat, throst the door wide open and entered. Mr. Tapes stood with both hands affectionately on his typewriter's shoulders, and the two turned quickly toward her as

Mrs. Takes grasped the sid man a structured hard, and sumstine of relief dispelled clouds of suspicion from her pretty.

An Automobilist who len't noted for being especially careful of a machine, was speeding alon gibe other day when he was held up by two bine-cented guar-and of the law.

"It's goin' too fast pe are." says one.

"Kape her down tor eight miles, or we'll in yer in." said the second. myer in, said the whold.

But my friends, I wasn't running fast all—and then you know we have areat atrol of these machines, too. Why, can stop I near own length.

Green wid you-yer can't pull de wool er our eyes dat way, see!"

Well I'll tell you what. Just climb behind here-both of you-and I'll Didn't I tell you I could stop her Total: I tell you I could slip her print of the argint sud ask me what I was he had not in the argint sud ask me what I was he had not not be in the argint sudship. Id not se in the tandle had yet passengers is more position than in any yet passengers is more position than he cought in the spheroling. I'll do H-so kepp yet the army. I spee period."

OUTLINES OF OKLAHOMA. The Baptists of Lamont have decided to

The peach crop of Grant county will be "corker" this year. The Pond Creek Vidette wants a her program for the Free Homes picule.

The half storm at Weatherford was sat-isfied with stampeding a corrat full of Pond Creek Item: Mrs. William Mc-Kiniey departed for Wichita this morning on a visit.

Governor Barnes will now take up the study of finance. His bank will open for business next week. Governor Jenkim says that the news-apers misquote him. Another thing he undn't thought of before.

The Shawnes Herald man hears a low rumbling sound that seems to him to be a popular demand for a daily.

Genry takes a hand in the Fort Sill land office receivership race. It is said that John H. Dillon is on the slats.

Representative A T Sniggs is anxious to carry an administration fing! And he is working hard for the henor, too. The territorial teachers are preparing for the normal institutes. And the same old questions will be discussed, too. Amos A. Ewing is now a good Quaker, too; and he says he won't resign, heavy hall storm may strike Amos. Oklahema City is reloicing over that sub-postal station. It claims to be the first city in the territory to have one. Jim Houston is now showing Bill Grimes how it is done in the secretary's office. Jim's school will be out July ist.

C. L. v. Racey frew a gun on Sam C. Davis in the probate court at Fond Greek Wednesday. The Vidette refrained from giving the cause.

of his bussy and robbed.

When the time comes for announcements Harry Ardery of Guthrie will have a seat in the parior car of the Jenkins-Grimes administration train.

Mr. Moody of Lamont is an artist in the principle of equalization. He returned from Kansas the other day with a fresh milch cow and his mother-in-law.

There was a "miscombobilation" in the advertisements to build a bridge over Sait Fork at Lamont and as a result the giv-ing of the contract has been postponed. Governor Jenkins is not insensible to the possibilities of Oklahema memory "I will make no promises," he said, "fo I might forget and you may remember." M. M. Barnard reported to the Perry Enterprise Times that he caught a 45 pound fish in the Sail Fork. Mr. Bar-hard was a truthful man when he lived in

A hall storm visited Canadian county Sunday night and injured a strip of country eight miles wide and eighteen miles form. The hallstones were so big that they went through the roofs of Ford Helm of Kansas City has purchased the cottage hotel at Guthrie for a supply house and expects to do a big business. If he does he must get an

Mrs. Nation's opposition to tobacco smoke is a birthmark.

Coburn's classics on the Beef Steer and His Sister will be used as text books in the agricultural colleges of Michigan and Topoka boarding houses have run out of There is nice grass in the state capital hd Wellington has been elected grand commander of the Knight Templars of the state. Another triumph for chivalry at Topeka on the subscription plan incre are always plenty lambs ready for shearing in Topeka.

A lad named Bradshaw living at Argonia shot his stater yesterday gun that "wasn't loaded." He s a lame ankle for life.

Pool Grinatead of the Wathena Republican has became tired of being under bond and has gone back to julk. He libeled Senator Fulton.

A man at Wellington fell from a scalled Monthly and struck head first or top of a deak. The deak was badly shat tered and one corner of it was broken of In every desert there is an oneign Cup-rentumn Bowerseck received one better few days ago saying that the govern-test gurden soods he sent out are grow-regruiting station has been closed and the flag hauled down. Old Glory still Dave Overnmer has giversed himself again. He swore in the district court hat Mrs. Nathrn was crasy and now he he doesn't know whether she is or not. David has a very restless opinion.

Etta Scople of Ottawa has offered $2,000 any one who can prove positively that nd wouldn't know God if she was shown

P. Harrington, editor of the Gove County Advocate, has charged that Representative Jones runs a joint and a libel wait is the result. The name of Jones is too senerable in this country to be so recklosity treated.

While Hop Stivers and Lee MrClellan fore aftending the anti-horse thief as-ociation at Windell Tuesday night their hicycles were stolen. Moral-It is more Windom from Col. Jelis, the negro editor of the Topeka Ledger. There never was a lane that did not form. There never was a third that was not caught at sever time and place. Hence you can place your bets that we will get straight with the many.

emplished, and they started down the aid at a tweety rate. Buddenly and the story that a meteor was picked up that a meteor was picked up still warm near Hallstead a few days ago or engine and threw on both brakes. It as like bitting a stone wall and the sir would have been seen falling by the cut of the story would have been seen falling by the cut of the story and have been seen falling by the cut of the story and have been seen falling by the cut of the story and have been seen falling by the cut of the story and have been seen falling by the cut of the story and have been seen falling by the cut of the story and have been seen falling by the cut of the story and have been seen falling by the cut of the story that a meteor was picked up at life and the story that a meteor was picked neteor is not larger than the head of 大大学中中中中中中中中中中中中中中中中中中中中中中中中中中中中中中中中

A Whirlwind in White Goods

Today we place on sale forty pieces beautiful sheer White Goods. Not a piece in the lot worth less than soc, most of them 25c and 35c values. They are displayed in our south window. If you would be one of the fortunate ones, best be here this morning, when the entire lot goes at 15 Cents

There Will Be Lively Times

In the Millinery department for the balance of this week. Children's Tab Hats and Ladies' Sailors, worth 25c and 35c, at 10c. Children's School Hats, worth 75c and $r, at 39c. Children's School Hats, worth $1.25 and $1.50, at 490.

Ladies' Trimmed Hats reduced from $4 to $1.98. Ladies' Trimmed Hats reduced from $5 and $5 to $2.98. Ladies' Trimmed Hats that were $7.50 and $8, now $5. All our Ladies' Street and Walking Hats reduced to half price and less. Balance of our French Pattern Hats at one-half and onethird the original price.

The Millinery chance of the season presents itself to Better goods at little prices were never shown before. The ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church will have a cake sale

મિં કૃષિ કૃષ્ય કૃષ

Grocery News

Stop Our Wagon or

'Phone No. 129

Fresh Eggs, dozen 10c Herkermer County Cheese ... 20c find the way back-

FRUITS OF ANY KIND Bananas, Oranges, Straw-

WE WANT to make this interesting that you will find our Grocery department as easily as you do the balance of this store. We know it's an out-of-the way corner.

Once you buy here, you'll

TODAY

Best Country Butter 15c

corner of our store so berries, Lemons. Oh, yes! extra large Mesena Lemons, today, per dozen, 15c.

ALSO

Nice, fresh Asparagus Tips, Lettuce, Onions, Radinhes, Beets, String Beans or any other vegetable in season. Remember, we keep them away from the dust of the street, hence they're always fresh, cool and clean -just as we say they are.

DIRT IN THE HOUSE BUILDS THE HIGH WAY TO BEGGARY." BE WISE IN TIME AND USE

SAPOLIC

Just From the Potteries

The Latest in Toilet Sets

In colors to match your bed rooms. See some of the pattern; in my south window. When you can just look through our new

Price, $2.25 to $20

Jardinieres

J. E. CALDWELL, China Hall, 130 N. Main.

Miss Marrie Scrip, Middlemore, Kg., Dully Dayle Colleged, No per works